

SUSTAINING MEMBERS

WHY SHOULD YOUR COMPANY BECOME A SUSTAINING MEMBER?

Promote your corporate image

Use the Chamber logo in your own marketing material.

Entertain your clients at our flagship events which feature prestigious speakers.

Advertise on the Chamber's homepage.

Market your business to a targeted audience

Detailed information about your company and products and services is prominently displayed on the Chamber website.

Your company and full details are included in our searchable database of members.

Your company news can be included in our regular e-newsletter.

Company Information

Get credit reports for UK and Irish companies (including credit rating).

See profiles of companies in the UK and worldwide (these typically include company name and address, contact details, description of company business and brief financial overview).

Product and services sourcing and brand searching in the UK and worldwide.

Mailing lists

We can supply mailing lists of companies in various industry sectors and locations around the world, so please ask us for more information. A list typically includes company name and address, telephone / fax numbers, web address, at least one named contact, job title(s) and an e-mail address. Lists can include manufacturers, service companies, wholesalers and retailers. Searches can also be carried out by geographic location or job title.

Business research

We can provide research on specific industry sectors in the UK ranging from a market study to making sales appointments. There is a charge for this service, with reduced rates for members.

Statistics

We can provide answers to a host of statistical and miscellaneous business questions, including:

- UK and worldwide import and export data
- Business statistics for London and the UK regions, including employment data
- Population figures
- Latest Retail Prices Index data

Chamber networking events

Buy tickets to our flagship events and conferences at much reduced prices.

Attend many Chamber events for free, including our regular Portuguese Chamber Business Network events held in the UK and Portugal.

Get priority booking rights at the Chamber's events, and those held by other institutions and Chambers with whom we have a close working relationship.

